CHRISTIAN COLLEGE GEELONG

Chaplain – Role Statement

The Role of a Chaplain

Chaplains employed by Christian College Geelong will model the unconditional love demonstrated and taught by Jesus Christ, as recorded in the Bible. This will be demonstrated in unconditional love and care for all members of the Christian College community by upholding and modelling the College's stated values of Love, Hope, Faith, Truth and Grace.

While exercising their roles from within a Christian framework and promoting positive Christian values, Chaplains will be sensitive to and respectful of people who hold both religious and non-religious beliefs and values different from their own. Chaplains will be available to all students, staff and parents within Christian College, regardless of religious affiliation.

In matters of faith, Christian College Chaplains have a particular role:

- a. In supporting and nurturing the faith of students at Christian College. In doing so, each Chaplain will be involved in local Christian churches and the College community, informing, teaching and communicating the Christian message.
- b. For students from other faith backgrounds seeking nurture in their faith Chaplains will refer to appropriate avenues of support.

Chaplains at Christian College should possess the following qualities: -

- A belief that they have been called to this role
- An understanding of and commitment to the spiritual context of the role
- Ability to demonstrate strong pastoral care gifts, with a strong ability to relate to others
- A wisdom that enables wise decisions both from a spiritual context and a practical perspective
- The ability to work in a team
- A strong and demonstrated servant heart
- A strong passion for the Word of God
