Dear Parents,

Year 1 Costume Requirements

We are looking forward to our Junior School Presentation Evening coming up on Thursday, 8th December and, this year, the Year 1 students will be performing the Christmas Carol, 'Away in a Manger'. Please go to this link to practise with your child at home. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Zi45JkZtUnM>

Children performing in the Strings Group, Choir or receiving an award on the evening, will need to wear their full SUMMER uniforms, and bring their performance costumes to school in a named bag before the 8th December. Those children who are NOT in the Strings Group, Choir or receiving an award, will need to wear their costumes to the Presentation Evening and will not be required to bring or wear their school uniforms.

Students can choose to dress as an angel or a shepherd for the evening. We will provide students with tinsel head pieces or belts depending on their costume choice. We ask that students wear comfortable and sensible shoes for their performance. If you have any queries, please contact your child's homeroom teacher directly.

Yours sincerely,

Katherine Green, Jamie-Lee Lobbe, Anna Daley, Sandra Neville
Year 1 Teachers
